Profile Summary

I am 26 years old, originally from Iran, with five years of professional experience in the travel and hospitality industry. I have worked extensively on booking and arranging hotels for travelers on international routes across Europe and worldwide.

My responsibilities included communicating with international clients, handling emails and service requests, translating correspondence, and supporting customer service and sales processes. Through this role, I gained strong skills in attracting and assisting foreign customers, understanding their needs, and ensuring smooth travel arrangements.

I am highly experienced in international communication, detail-oriented, and confident in working with global clients. I aim to use these skills to support a company in Sweden by attracting international customers and strengthening client relationships
